Fare Free Day After Thanksgiving Announced

Waco, TX – November 25, 2008 – Waco Transit will provide free passes Friday, November 28th, the day after Thanksgiving, for the 6 To Success service. The service has experienced impressive growth in ridership since it began last November. The decision to offer free passes the day after Thanksgiving was two fold. “We want to offer our current riders a fare free day to thank them for utilizing the service,” said Julie Talbert of the Heart of Texas Workforce Development Board. “At the same time, we want to use this day to introduce the service to new riders.”

Riders can transfer to any of the nine bus routes in Waco to reach any of Waco Transit’s destinations. Drivers and supervisors will be available to help riders get where they want and help them return home.

Free one-day roundtrip passes are available at the Falls County Workforce Solutions Center, located at 230 Coleman Street in Marlin. Call 254 / 883 5678 or visit www.6ToSuccess.com to learn more about the fare free day.

About 6 To Success

The 6 To Success service was designed to connect jobseekers and students to employment and educational opportunities. This public transportation service provides 6 trips daily connecting rural Falls and southeastern McLennan Counties with Waco. The main benefit of the route is its connection to the urban Waco Transit system. During its first year, ridership grew steadily and ultimately provided more than 10,000 passenger trips. The most common request from passengers during a recent survey was for evening service.
